Tilth Producers Quarterly Advertising Request

Greetings!

Thank you for your interest in advertising with Tilth Producers, Washington State's association of organic and sustainable farmers. Tilth Producers Quarterly is a journal distributed to a targeted audience of over 600 growers, researchers, processors, and distributors, as well as individual supporters of organic and sustainable agriculture. Continued growth in organic agriculture has increased the demand for related products and services, so be sure to submit your advertising to assure exposure for your business! We also offer advertising on our website. Contact organic@tilthproducers.org for details. Journal advertising will be accepted at any time, but the deadline for inclusion in specific issues is noted on the request form below. Feel free to call or email me to request a sample copy of our latest Tilth Producers Quarterly.

Thank you,
